During my recent researching on Ancestry Library edition, I discovered several incorrect entries covering death/burial details supplied by Find a Grave. I need a bit of help - if you have been successful in correcting an entry supplied by Find a Grave, please forward me the instructions.

Whilst browsing through a few of Jenny's folders I came across a few interesting occupations from the past;

ALL SPICE name of grocer
BIRDBOY employed to scare away birds from crops
CONNER inspector or tester
HONEY DIPPER extracted raw sewage from catch basins and out house

Happy researching! Cheers Anne
